

Register search method for performing searches on first search provider 400

Register search method for performing searches on second search provider 410

Detect request for a search on one of the first or the second search providers.

420

Provide a ubiquitous search method to perform search on one of the first or the second search providers

430

Respond to call on the ubiquitous search method by performing the search 440

FIGURE 4

Register search method for performing searches on first search provider 500

Register search method for performing searches on second search provider 510

Detect request for a search on both the first and the second search providers.

520

Provide a ubiquitous search method to perform search on both the first and the second search providers

530

Respond to call on the ubiquitous search method by performing the search on the first and the second search providers 540

FIGURE 5

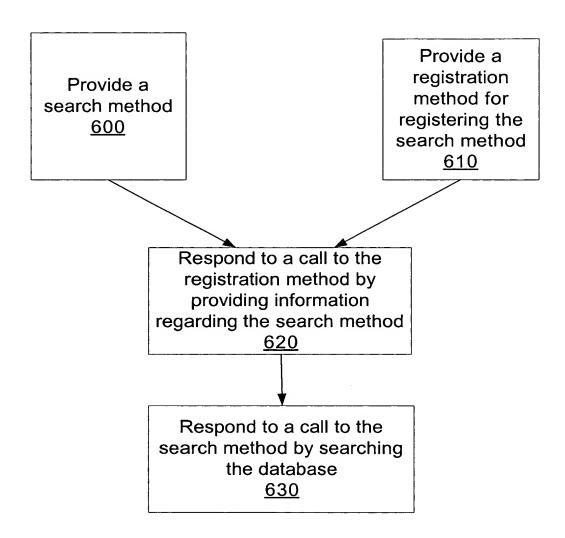

FIGURE 6